

Child Centred Diversity in Quality Early Childhood Education and Care

(The child) is placed in the centre of all things and the things are seen only in relation to himself (Froebel cited by Chung and Walsh 2010)

Literature review

Observations

Analysis of training needs;
development of training
modules and pilot

Training evaluation

Toolkit of good practice

Child centred?

- Learning in and through play
- Interests and needs
- Participation
- Diversity and individuality
- Respecting family and culture
- Capable learners with different ways of learning